

CONFERENCE 24

Friday 8 November, 8.30am – 5pm
Rydgas Latimer, Christchurch

EXCELLENCE IN EQUITY

PROGRAMME

08:30 am	Arrival/Registration Tea and coffee	1:30 pm	How to provide equitable cancer care to adolescents and young adults across Aotearoa New Zealand. CNS Louise Sue
08:50 am	Welcome karakia	2:00 pm	Inequities for Pasifika and Māori – the CNS experience. CNS Nirvanah Streeter and CNS Marisa Letoa
09:00 am	Why equity is more than a catchphrase: Māori and cancer in Aotearoa New Zealand. Associate Professor Jason Gurney	2:30 pm	Hauora Māori in oncology. Theona Ireton; Māori Oncology Kaimahi, India Mikarar-Girvan; Hauora Māori Liaison
09:45 am	Transforming pancreatic cancer care through nurse-led and consumer co-designed services. Professor Mei Krishnasamy	3:00 pm	Afternoon kai
10:15 am	Morning kai	3:15 pm	Nurse Practitioners in cancer care – the New Zealand experience. NP Kirstin Wagteveld
10:30 am	The Nursing Equity Tool (NEAT): Resourcing nurses to address inequity in cancer care. Professor Mei Krishnasamy	4:00 pm	PANEL DISCUSSION Future for advanced cancer nursing roles. Professor Mei Kirshnasamy, Kirstin Wagteveld, Shelley Shea, Linda Attwood
11:00 am	Research presentation. Master of Nursing student Stella Williams-Terei	4:50 pm	Closing karakia
11:30 am	Hospital in the home pathway. Linda Attwood	5:00 pm	Conference close
12:00 pm	Lunch and networking
12:45 pm	Inequities in LGBTBQI+ and multiple myeloma? Dr Fionnuala Fagan

PROUDLY SPONSORED BY:

