PAE ORA-HEALTHY FUTURES WITHIN EMERGENCY CARE

Tuesday 23 July, 7.00 – 8.00pm

NATASHA HEMOPO KEMP

*(Tūhourangi Ngāti Wāhiao, Ngāti Pīkiao, Ngāti Tamaterā)
Emergency Clinical Nurse Consultant | Member of CENNZ
(holds the Pae Ora Portfolio)
Nursing Advisor with Manaaki Mana*

Natasha currently works in multiple roles, all for the purpose of improving the environment for Māori patients and whānau who enter emergency care, drawing on over 25 years of nursing experience. Simultaneously Natasha is a staunch advocate for Māori nurses and improving our Māori workforce. She is a Te Runanga Representative for Māori Nurses in Emergency and a Māori Clinical Senate as well as currently completing a research report around Māori nurses experience working in emergency care.

This presentation will include:

- How to strengthen your Response when caring for Māori
- Support to address the 'Cultural Gap'
- Strengthens 'Kawa Whakaruruhau'-Cultural Safety
- Some practical tips on how nurses can apply it into your nursing care
- Increase Awareness around Māori Health.
